December 30, 2005

Sir:

It is respectfully requested that a certificate be issued, correcting the following error in the above-identified patent:

Rewrite claim 1 as follows:

--A composition for the promotion of alcohol and acetaldehyde degradation in a subject comprising an effective amount of caffeine, Guaranà, Yerba Matè, Eleutherococcus senticosus, Panax ginseng, ginger, Glycyrrhiza glabra, ginkgo biloba and fructose.--

REMARKS

Patentees respectfully request that U.S. Patent No. 6,936,283 be corrected.

Upon reviewing U.S. Patent No. 6,936,283, patentees noticed an error in claim 1. As a result, patentees submit herewith a Petition for Certificate of Correction, wherein it is shown how claim 1 should appear.

In present claim 1, the term "comprising" is recited in lines 2 and 3 of the claim. As a result, the second recitation of "comprising" is redundant and renders the claim grammatically incorrect. Thus, patentees believe that claim 1 must be corrected, so that the claim is grammatically correct and that there is no confusion as to the scope of the claim.

After reviewing the application, we note that this error was introduced in the Examiner's Amendment mailed on March 31, 2005. As a result, applicants believe that no fee is due. However, if the Patent Office believes otherwise, the Commissioner is authorized to debit counsel's Deposit Account No. 25-0120 the fee of $100.

Respectfully submitted,

YOUNG & THOMPSON
